FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Northwest Medical Center Welcomes Jared Keller, Physician Assistant, to Provider Team

Albany, MO, October 28, 2013 – Northwest Medical Center (NMC) is pleased to welcome Jared Keller, Physician Assistant, to the medical team. Keller will work with NMC physicians Katie Dias, DO, and Angelia Martin, MD, providing care at the Grant City Clinic and Albany Clinic East locations.

"Northwest Medical Center has an excellent reputation and a great team of physicians. I was instantly attracted to the professionalism of the staff as they and the physician team made me feel right at home. My family and I are thrilled to be living in this rural area and I am very eager to work with NMC's physicians and caregivers." --- Jared Keller

Mr. Keller earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology from Utah Valley University and his Master of Physician Assistant Studies (MPAS) degree from Idaho State University. Mr. Keller is a member of the American Academy of Physician Assistants and Idaho Academy of Physician Assistants.

"I am very excited to welcome Jared and his family to Northwest Medical Center", said Jon Doolittle, NMC president and CEO. "I also think it speaks volumes about the strength and culture of our organization and our hometown communities that such a promising young man would bring his family halfway across the country to be a part of our bright future. Jared joins a talented staff that continues to innovate to be the ideal health home for all in our region."

Clinical Operations Director, Vicki Hogue says "We are happy to have Jared Keller join our provider team and pleased to be able to offer the presence of a male practitioner in Grant City."

The public is invited to join Jared and his family for a Meet and Greet Open House event on November 19 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at the Worth County Fairgrounds Building, located on N. Old 169/Lyon's Street in Grant City, Missouri. Refreshments will be served.

Keller recently moved to Albany with his wife, Cheryl, and two young daughters.
